Margaret River Red Mixed Dozen Tasting Notes

Rare Dirt Cabernet Merlot 2016 Margaret River: Rare Dirt Cab Merlot presents a deep violet red colour. Fragrances of ripe fruits flow off the scintillating nose, seamlessly moving to the elegant and medium bodied palate. Juicy flavours of redcurrants and cassis are supported by ripe and fleshy tannins, leading to a long and savoury finish. Meat as well pasta dishes taste excellent with this magnificent red blend.

Heart to Heart Cabernet Merlot 2014 Margaret River: The magnificent Heart to Heart Cabernet Merlot features a dark crimson colour with purple hues throughout the wine. This vibrant red wine blend offers fresh aromas of raspberry, mulberry and blackberry fruits, with subtle spicy hints evident in the backdrop. The palate becomes juicy and textured with flavours of blackberries and red plums, which combine with fine tannins and vanilla oak hints to provide a long and persistent finale. Crafted to be relished upon release, this Cabernet Merlot tastes splendid with Barbecued Porterhouse Steak on a garlic mash, red meats, spaghetti Bolognese, and pasta.

Darling Ridge Merlot 2015 Western Australia: The grapes used to craft Darling Ridge Merlot were selected from premium vineyards in the southwest corner of Western Australia. This delightful Merlot displays a bright red colour with light orange hues along the edges. The attractive nose exudes lively aromas of ripe blackberries, plums, mulberries and raspberries, with subtle violet nuances lurking in the background. The crisp and juicy palate is rife with flavours of dark plummy fruits, liquorice and vanilla. Balanced by fine tannins and soft oak notes, the wine finishes delicate and refreshing. This vibrant red wine tastes marvellous with beef stew and osso bucco.

Wild Wood Cabernet Merlot 2013 Margaret River: Wild Wood Cabernet Merlot shows deep black hues, and exudes sharp aromas of toasted French oak from the lifted bouquet. The fresh and juicy palate is rife with flavours of blackcurrant and balanced by chocolaty undertones to culminate in a delicate and refreshing finale. This elegant wine varietal is crafted for consumption upon release. It tastes amazing with red meat and roasted beef fillet.

Cathedral Rock Estate Cabernet Merlot 2014 Margaret River: The 2014 Cabernet Merlot from Cathedral Rock Estate in Margaret River Region is a full-bodied chocolate red wine. It has a soft structure of French Oak with flavours of mulberry and chocolate. Made with carefully selected grapes, this wine is ready to drink now and can also be cellared for few years. Savour this wine with your favourite red meat or European dishes to get the maximum out of it.

Cape View Cabernet Merlot 2016 Margaret River: Cape View Cabernet Merlot 2016 Margaret River Wine is a well-rounded and structured blend, which boasts a gorgeous deep violet red hue. Featuring aromas of chocolate and blackberry, the Cape View Cabernet Merlot culminates in a vibrant and persistent finale.